

A photograph of a modern, curved hallway with warm, yellowish lighting. The walls are made of large, light-colored panels. Two people are walking away from the camera, their figures blurred to suggest motion. The ceiling is curved and has recessed lighting. The floor is a speckled carpet.

iat

Institute of Accounting Technicians

Put your career on the fast track

www.instituteofat.org

IAT - An Introduction

The Institute of Accounting Technicians is a not-for-profit professional body for accounting technicians. The Institute has a growing global presence with members in over 25 countries.

IAT helps individuals develop their skills and provides tools and resources to facilitate career development. IAT also seeks to assist employers improve the productivity and cost effectiveness of Certified Accounting Technician employees, and contribute to enhancing the efficiency of the broader economic environment.

Our members are employed in all sectors of the economy and make a significant contribution to the efficiency of any business.

The Institute is dedicated to high ethical and professional standards and are committed to raising the profile of the accounting technician profession.

IAT Membership

Becoming a member of IAT enables you to part of a professional body that represents and supports excellence in all aspects of the accounting profession worldwide. The Institute is dedicated to high ethical and professional standards and are committed to raising the profile of the accounting technician profession.

There are several ways to become a member:

- > Completing the Certified Accounting Technician (CIAT) program
- > Associate membership can be obtained by completing the Certified Financial Accountant program
- > Meeting the IAT membership eligibility criteria

Membership Grades

The IAT membership structure caters for different educational and professional needs. It is designed to allow you entry at an appropriate level, accurately reflecting your academic standards, vocational skills, experience and contribution to the accounting profession.

- > IAT offers three grades of membership, so you can choose the membership that's right for you.

Type of Membership	Full Membership - CIAT	Associate Membership	Fellowship - FIAT
Designatory Letters	CIAT	AIAT	FIAT
Requirements	The CIAT program needs to be successfully completed for full membership.	The Certified Financial Accountant program needs to be successfully completed for Associate Membership	Members can apply for IAT Fellowship when they have been a member in good standing of IAT for two years or more.
Exemptions	Exemptions may be granted if they satisfy the course and mark requirements for the ACCA and CIMA syllabus.	N/A	N/A

To request more information about IAT membership email us at info@iatglobal.org or visit us at www.instituteofat.org/join.html

Full Membership - CIAT

Becoming a member of IAT enables you to part of a professional body that represents and supports excellence in all aspects of the accounting profession worldwide.

IAT Global Vision

- > IAT members will represent the highest quality in the accounting profession.
- > All members will derive value from joining and participating in the Institute of Accounting Technicians
- > The Institute of Accounting Technicians will advance and promote the practice of professional accounting.
- > In addition, the Institute of Accounting Technicians will be a leading edge in the accounting profession.

How to Apply for Membership

- > Download and complete the application form.
- > The completed form should be returned to the IAT administrative office via email, FAX or mail.
- > Please include copies of your educational and professional qualifications.

How much does it cost?

The fee for full membership is USD480.00.

This payment consists of certification fee (onetime payment) of USD410.00 plus annual dues of USD70.00.

Associate Membership - AIAT

Becoming a member of IAT enables you to part of a professional body that represents and supports excellence in all aspects of the accounting profession worldwide.

About Associate Membership

Associate membership is ideal for someone who is not professional qualified but who has a strong interest in the accounting profession. Associate membership is for non-studying members who may at some point wish to study the CIAT program.

How to Apply of Associate Membership

- > Download and complete the associate application form.
- > The completed form should be returned to the IAT administrative office via email or mail.

How much does it cost?

The fee for associate membership is USD220.00.

This payment consists of certification fee (onetime payment) of USD150.00 plus annual dues of USD70.00.

Achieving Fellowship

Fellowship (FIAT) is our highest grade of Membership and is awarded as a hallmark of professional standing and achievement in the financial profession. It is a recognition of achievements within the profession and a definition of your professional status, not merely a reward for service.

The IAT Fellowship (FIAT) is awarded to existing IAT members who are in good standing. As a Fellow, you will be recognised for your contribution to the financial profession. The Institute encourages Members of at least two year standing to seek Fellowship status.

Requirements

Fellowship is the IAT senior grade of professional membership. In order to qualify for fellowship all applicants must have a minimum of two years' experience in the field of accounting and be able to demonstrate leadership by encouraging others to achieve their common goals.

How to Apply

The completed application should be returned to the IAT administrative office via email or mail.

Why Choose IAT?

Choosing to become a member of the Institute of Accounting Technicians enables you to be part of a professional body that represents and supports excellence in all aspects of the accounting profession worldwide. We look forward to welcoming YOU to IAT.

Contact IAT

Institute of Accounting Technicians

3422 Old Capitol Trail
Suite 1063, Wilmington
DE 19808-6192, USA

Telephone: + 1 302-425-5528

Email: info@iatglobal.org

Visit us at www.instituteofat.org

